

Proposes £30 p.a. for senior engraver Croker to maintain [Francis] Beresford, who has completed his apprenticeship [see MINT00078 (/catalogue/record/MINT00078), (Mint 19/1/165) and MINT00079 (/catalogue/record/MINT00079), (Mint 19/1/155-6)].

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/1/151, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<151r>

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury.

May it please your Lordships

M^r Croker Graver to the Mint having taken one Beresford to be his Apprentice & the time of his Apprenti{cs}hip being lately expired, & the said Beresford now working under M^r Croker as Journeyman: I humbly pray that M^r Croker may be allowed 30^{li} per an for the maintenance of the said Beresford with meat drink & cloaths, as in a former case of the like nature.

All which is most humbly submitted to your Lordships great wisdome

[1]

[1] Mint Office
June 26. 1722.
