

MINT01596

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/435, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<1r>

Middx Ss The Information of Unidentified of the parish of S^t Giles in the feilds Shoemaker upon oath this 9th day of September 1702

✱ Who saith that he became acquainted with one M^rs Unidentified about fiftē months ago, by her frequently coming to one Unidentified in Southwark who is this informants Aunt and nursed a child for the said Unidentified and being very free with the Said Unidentified she has told this informant that she did counterfeit the currant coyn of this Kingdome, and he this informant haveing some occasion to go into yorkshire the Said Unidentified proposed to go along with him and calling upon her at her Lodgings, which was at M^rs Unidentified in Thames Street some days before he intended to sett forward to know if she was ready, he did see her then at her said Lodgings Edge Counterfeit money and he further saith that he being at his mothers house at Dallow Gill near Rippon in Yorkshire the said Unidentified did perswade this informant to take his mother and sister abroad which when he did for almost two days together the said Unidentified did counterfeit by casting about 20[£] in shillings resembling the currant coyn of this Realm, and that he has afterwards seen her edge & finish the same and has assisted her in the doing of it, And further sayth that he hath see on Unidentified finish and edge counterfeit money resembling the currant coyn of this Realm (namely shillings) att the house of one Unidentified a lighterman about Christmas last near a water workhouse in Thames street and further saith that he this informant has carryed severall parcells of Counterfeit money from the said Unidentified to the said Unidentified, to pay for nursing of her child aforesaid and that this informants wife has Received counterfeit money from the Said Unidentified, who would sometimes say it was of her own makeing and sometimes that Unidentified did make it And further saith that he this Informant hath seen the aforesaid Unidentified about 4 months agoe at this Informants Lodgings in Holborne edge counterfeit shillings with a blunt kniwe and sometimes with a file & that he this informant together with Unidentified were present, and assisted her in the marking the same about the edges. & he further <1v> {sayth} that he hath received about 20 or 40 shillings at a time of the Said Unidentified allowing her after the rate of 20^d good money for 3[£] counterfeit money, and the last time he remembers to have received any was about January last. Unidentified Jurat capt anno et die supra dic cor me J: Stanley
