The Deposition of Charles Berdoe of the par of S<sup>t</sup>. Mary at Hill near Billingsgate Cheesmonger 6 Iuly 1698

He saith that about 5 weeks ago on m<sup>r</sup>. Butler being in company with the Deponent and M<sup>r</sup>. Molins a Founder near the old Change represented to them that he had given bayle for his stay in England but his bail was expiring and he must given in fresh security and for that end desired the Deponent and M<sup>r</sup>. Molins to lend him 50<sup>s</sup>. or 3<sup>l<sup>b</sup></sup> upon his Note but the Deponent cannot possitively affirm that the said money was for the Secretary of state to whom he was to give the bayle

Charles Berdoe
