

MINT01554

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/305, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

ditto SsThe Information of Robert Mayor taken upon oath this 21.st of Jan^ry 1700.

Who saith that after Unidentified had app^{re}hended one Unidentified as the Said Unidentified was going into the house of M^r Unidentified the Constable in Drury layn, he saw the said Unidentified drop a paper at the door of the said Unidentified, which paper the said Unidentified took up, and opening it found therein a piece of false and counterfeit Money made in the imitation, likeness and Similitude of a Spanish pistole, And further this Informant upon his Oath Saith, that he being p^{re}sent when the said Constable Search't the said Unidentified the Said Constable took out of one of his said breeches pocketts another paper, in which paper was also another such piece of Money which was false and Counterfeit as aforesaid. Jur coram me

Unidentified Unidentified
