

Copy of letter to the Chester Mint requiring the attendance of clerks to complete their day-books

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 10/2/63r, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<63r>

To the Warden, Master & Comptroller of Chester Mint

Gentlemen

Vnderstanding that your Clerks are much behind hand in their Day-bookes we require them to attend dayly in the Office from eight in the morning till twelve & from two till five in the afternoon untill their Day-books be compleat to the present time upon pain of suspension for neglect & we direct you to see that they do attend in the Office accordingly & that their sallaries be not paid them any further untill their books be compleat, which we expect will be done in a fortnight

Is: Newton

[1]

Tho: Neale

Tho Hall

[2]

[1] Send up presently the first day books which we suppose are finished long since

[2] Mint Office octo^r 29: 1697
