

Request for an allowance not exceeding £36 for defraying the charged of a dinner for the jury at the Tryall of the Pix

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: T 1/205.19, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<63r>

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majestys Treasury

May it please your Lordships

I humbly pray your Lordships Order for issuing out of the Coynage Duty any summ not exceeding thirty & six pounds for defraying the charges of a dinner for the Iury at the Tryall of the Pix & allowing the same in my Accounts.

All which is most humbly submitted to your Lordships great wisdome

Isaac Newton

[1]

<64v>

{illeg}
{Orders}

36 for the Pix Feast

[1] Mint Office
Aug. 21. 1716
