

Copy of request for compensation for prosecuting clippers and coiners

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 1/7/32, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<32>

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majestys Treasury.

May it Please Your Lordships

At the foot of my Accounts (as Warden) for prosecuting Clippers and Coyners, which are no fully past and determined there remains due to me from his Majesty the sum of 169: 10: 07 $\frac{3}{4}$ Which sum I most humbly Pray your Lordships to allow me out of the Moneys Imprest to M^r. Neale and now remaining in the hands of M^r. Fauquier, by Issuing your Lordships warrant to the Auditors to allow the same in M^r. Neales accounts now in their hands

All which is most humbly submitted

Is: Newton.

30th: Aprill 1701.
