

Report of the moneys from fishing a wreck near the Isle of Mayo

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: T 1/235.66, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<245r>

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majestys Treasury.

Sir Isaac Newton Master & Worker of His Majestys Mint, and In^o: Sydenham, most humbly Represents.

That pursuant to His Majestys Warrant dated the 1st: Nov^r: 1721. We went to the House of M^r: And^r: Drummonds Goldsmith at Charing Cross, where in the Presence of the Agent for the Proprietors of the Pattent granted to Iacob Rowe Esq^r. for fishing on Wrecks, did see the silver weighed, and Receiv'd for the Use of his Majesty $\frac{1}{10}$ part thereof, and have converted the same into the Current coyn of this Kingdom, and pay'd the net Proceed unto Casper Frederick Henning Esp^r: pursuant to the Directions of the said Warrant an Account of which is Annexed

Which is most humbly submitted

<246v>

An Account of His Majestys Share of A Wreck near the Isle of Mayo, taken Vp by Cap^t. Iac: Rowe

19th Dec^r 1721

Read

Sir Isaac Newton
Master of the Mint
