

'Proposalls for Cutting & Coyning of Copper Half pence and Farthings p[er] the Mony^{rs}'.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/424, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<424r>

Proposalls for Cutting & Coyning of Copper

Half pence & Farthings. per the Monyers

(Viz^t)

	d
For all Charges In Cutting the Blanks And Scowring them without Nealing the Pound Weight to {Contract} 21 ^d .	} 0. 3 4
For Coyning them Nicely Fine, bearing all Loss, and Charges In Repairing the proper &c. at per pound	} 1. 3 4

N. B.

That 6. farthings $\frac{1}{7}$ Was Allowed for Coyning the Last Copper. And that those proposed to be Coyned, must be much better Performed.

And That £200. was Allowed to the Monyers per the Last Patentees for Fitting up the Engines

<424v>

Moneyers proposals for coining copper
