

Copy of a bill from the engineers and moneyers to the Treasury for machines totalling £640.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/1/210, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<210r>

The Engineers and moneyers Bill

Told to the Lords of the Treasury	l̄	s	d
Two Mills and {6 paper} of Rowles	295:	00	00
Two Crown Cutters	25.	00	00
Two halfe Crown Cutters	20:	00.	00
1 shilling Cutter	08.	00	00
1 Crown Flatter	30.	00	00
1 halfe Crown Flatter	25.	00	00
1 shilling Flatter	20.	00	00
For 5 Duzen of Instruments to {sisege} per ounce	17.	10	00
For 1 Instrument to Edge the Crowns	25	00	00
For 1 Instrument to Edge the halfe Crowns	15.	00	00
For 1 Greate press to Coyne Crowns	90.	00	00
For 1 Press to Coyne halfe Crowns	70.	00	00
£	10:

This Coppy was signed by m^r In^o: Braint Provost and Geo. Russell: Henry Looker.

One Mill		147.	10.	0
One Press to coyn	crowns	90
	half crowns	70

	shillings	60
	sixpences
One Cutter for	Crowns	12.	10
	half crowns	10.
	shillings	8.
	sixpences	7
One Flatter for	Crowns	30
	half crowns	25
	shillings	20
	sixpences
One Edger for	Crowns	25
	Half crowns	16
	shillings
	sixpences
One dozen of Vices to size the pieces		3.	10
One dozen of Nealing Panns		12.	0
