

Clerical copy of the master's oath.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/1/413, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

<413r>

You shall well and truly execute the Office of Master & Worker of his Majestys Mint and perform + keep all the Covenants and agreements conteyned in this Writeing Indented made betweenne his said Majesty of the one part and your selfe of the other part which on your part are to be perform'd + kept And You shall bear your selfe towards his said Majesty + his People in the said Office well + Covenably according to the Tenor and true meaning of the said agreements And You shall make Gree to his said Majesty All this you shall doe according to the best of your knowledge.

Soe help you God

---