

Copy of charges of bringing gold from Portsmouth and melting it into ingots

Author: Isaac Newton
Source: MINT 1/8/58, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<58>

Charges of bringing her Majesties Gold from Portsmouth and melting it into Ingotts

The charges of the Officer of the Mint for riding 70 Post miles to Portsmouth	}	£	s:	d
		1:	15	0
Horse hire from Portsmouth		0:	18:	0
Expences on the Road and at Portsmouth		1—	1—	0
Boat hire to go on board the Man of Warr		0—	2—	0
		£	3—	16: 0
To the Carryer for bringing it up, and for Arming Men to guard it 5 Guineas	}	5:	7—	6
Charges of melting into Ingotts		.	16:	0
		9—	19—	6

Allowed the 4th March 1705/6

I: Stanley

Is: Newton

In<sup>o</sup> Ellis

[1]

[1]

Received the 1s<sup>t</sup> April 1706 Nine pounds three shillings six pence for the charges above mentiond, and 12 pounds 18<sup>s</sup> mention'd in my Lord Treasurers Warrant by me

£9. 3: 6

12. 18: 0    his reward

0: 16: 0    for melting

£22: 17: 6

---