

Statement made in the Duchy Chamber of errors in the Exchequer and Mint weights.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/1/126, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

August the 6th. 1701.

In the Dutchy Chamber.

Tryed. The Exchequer Weights.

The two drachms  $\frac{1}{4}$  grain heavier

The two quarter ounces exact

The 4 ounce weights exact

The 32 ounce weight  $\frac{1}{2}$  grain full heavier

The 64 ounce weight  $\frac{1}{2}$  grain lighter

And the Tower Weights

The 2 single Drachms heavier then the other  $\frac{1}{8}$  part of grain each

The halfe ounce  $\frac{1}{4}$  graine heavier

The ounce  $\frac{1}{4}$  grain full heavier

The two ounce  $\frac{1}{2}$  grain full heavier

The 4 ounce pile small weights } 1 grain  $\frac{1}{4}$

The 8 ounce weight  $\frac{1}{2}$  grain full heavier

The 16 ounce weight 1 grain  $\frac{1}{2}$  heavier

The 64 ounce weight  $\frac{1}{2}$  grain heavier

---