

MINT01611

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/450, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

northumb:0 Ss The Information of Unidentified Unidentified Constable & Unidentified taken upon oath this 11th day of August 1703

Who upon their respective oaths do say that upon their search of the house and shop of Unidentified Smith in the town of Penrith this day, by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of M<sup>r</sup> justice Carleton, they did in the severall parts and appartments in his the said Unidentifieds house and smiths shop find severall counterfeit shillings and  $\frac{1}{2}$  crowns resembling those of the currant coyn of this realme, with severall lumps of metall as they beleive to make the same, as also severall peices resembling shillinhs all run in lumps together and partly melted and stuck one to another, and they further say, that part of an edger was found in his Said shop and house, to edge Guineas and shillings withall and they further say that the severall little puncions, and copper, and other little Implements were all taken as aforesaid in the house and shop of the said Unidentified, and the Said Unidentified for himself doth say that upon searching the pocketts of the Said Unidentified he did find two peices of metall in the same, and the said Unidentified Unidentified, and Unidentified do severally swear that the tooles Impliments and other counterfeit money now shewn to these deponents, are the same which they seized and secured in the house & shop of the said Unidentified as aforesaid,

Unidentified capt	Jurat anno et die	John <sup>his</sup> J <sub>mark</sub> Simpson su <sup>p</sup> dict: coram
me	Unidentified	Unidentified

---