

Copy of letter to the Chester Mint requesting money taken out of each journey to be sent to the Mint in London

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 10/2/54r, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<54r>

To the Officers of the Mint at Chester

Gentlemen

Wee direct You that all the pieces of money taken out of each Iourney to be sent hither (when required) to be assized, And all the pieces deliverd to Your Assay Master to be assay'd, be return'd to Your deputy Master who is allready charg'd with both & accountable for them: And You may forbear for the future takeing out a piece out of each Iourney to send hither to be assayd, unless You are particularly requir'd so to doe by

Gentlemen &c

[1]

Is Newton

Tho Neale

Tho: Molyneux

[1] London

Mint Office Augst 5: 97
