

MINT01600

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/439, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Middx Ss The Examination of Unidentified of the parish of S^t Wapping in the country of Middx aforesaid taken this 20th {day} of December 1702

Who saith that the counterfeit that was taken in her custody yesterday was belonging to one W^m: Clement who since has made his escape and saith that her room lay in cor^mon for the whole family & that she was bid by the said Clement to bring down the counterfeit mony so taken upon her, butt does not know who made it, and further sayth that she doth not know how the flask, Screws, files spand crucibles & other materialls taken in her said roome came to be there. captut coram me anno et die prædict: J Stanley Mary: ^{her} M:S: mark Sherston

Middx Ss Unidentified being duly Examin.^d saith that the Trunks in his Lodging room in Virginia Street are all his butt doth not know how the bagg of Spand came into his trunk butt owns he saw a bagg taken thereout unless one W^m: Clemens (who fled) putt it there, nor doth he know any thing how the crucibles that were found in his KIitchin came there. capt. coram me ann et die pradict: J Stanley Unidentified

Memorandum Unidentified his wide speaks to the

smae purpose RW
