

Letter concerning funds in the Mint and payment of a sum to Ann Morris for her husband's services

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: T 1/85.9, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<24r>

Mint Office 18th March 170 $\frac{2}{3}$

Sir

In answer to yours of Mar. 16th, I humbly desire you to acquaint my Lord High Treasurer that I have in my hands some money imprest formerly to M^r Neale, out of other Funds then the Coynage Duty, out of which I pay a salary of sixty pounds per annum to M^r Rob^t Weddell by Warrant for his services in prosecuting Clippers & Coyners, and I am humbly of opinion that out of this money the summe of forty pounds may be paid to M^{rs} Ann Morris in satisfaction of her husbands like services. I am

Sir

Your most humble Servant

Is. Newton.

<25v>

Morris
{Ordne.}

For the Honourable William Lowndes Es^q
