

MINT01674

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/513, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

Com Middx Ss The Examination of Unidentified taken before the Right Honorable M<sup>r</sup> Secretary Unidentified this 30.th day of March 1705.

Who saith that she hath been acquainted with Unidentified about 3. Years and that she this Examinant never went by any other name than that of Unidentified, she further saith that she was in trouble some years agoe, but was acquitted because that nothing could be proved against here, And that she never Saw the paper that is now produced with Silver dust in it She further saith that she knows one M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified, but has never had any business with her, and further Saith that she has been acquainted, with M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified about a twelvemonth, for that she was a prisner when that M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified was a prisner likewise. She further saith that she knows one M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified who belonged to M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified, and that she has seen the Said Unidentified at M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentifieds own house sometime before the Said M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified was last committed to prison . The Examinant further saith she knows one Unidentified who formerly took up M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified.

Unidentified Capt. an et die supdit coram Robt Harley.

---