

Unfinished holograph draft of a covering letter forwarding MINT00404
(/catalogue/record/MINT00404)
(Mint 19/3/121), suggesting that the money needed should be found from coinage duty and from Stewart's executors.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/3/142, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<142r>

To the Right Honourable the Earl of Godolphin Lord High Treasurer of great Britain.

May it please your Lordship

In Obedience to your Lordships Order of Reference signified to us by M^r Taylor's Letter of 22th Instant upon the annexed Memorial of the General & other Officers of her Majesties Mint at Edinburgh concerning the Bullion given by Act of Parliament for maintaining a free coynage in that Mint & collected by M^r Daniel Stuart now deceased & left in the hands of his Executors we have considered the same. And wherea{s} it is suggested that the said Act of Parliament is repealed we humbly represent to your Lordship that the coynage Duty now collected in its stead may be properly applyed by your Lordship to the same uses of that Mint, as may also the Bullion in the hands of the said Executors. And since the Officers of her Majesties Mint at Edinburgh re
