I made false money in England for severall persons whose names are or followeth

Madam Jackson and I wrought at the sign of the George near the Church for one mr Kircher in Grace Church street near the Monument and delivered him severall Guineas at the sign of the Cross Keyes in the same street

Wee wrought h{illeg} wire for M<sup>r</sup> Hesine who sells all sorts of Copper Wares and Iron and lives in Fleet street near Temple Barr

as abov for Adams a Bancker Goldsmith that lives in the strand her father was present when we delivered them to him at an house near the Litle Exchange about 4 months before I left England

There is one M<sup>r</sup> {Perce} a Merchant who lives near the Maypole in the Strand that keeps some Workmen at his brothers at the sign of the maggy at Chelsea who makes money

There is also one Named {Kater} a merchant and Banker who lives in the strand near the Little Exchange He has a place three or 4 {lengths} out of the City whereas there is a Wand Mill I cannot yet think of the name of the place but I remember the name of the Village in Harrow on the Hill and the House and the House is called Northall and the monyer Keeps the house his name is {Goldin}

The same thing may be found at M<sup>r</sup> Williams's a Goldsmith in the Pall mall and one of his apprentices told me he had seen it signed Maxmi Laleue

The place of Arton in Harrow on the hill at an house called Northall the man is named {Goldin} The same thing may like wise be found at M<sup>r</sup> Williams's in the Pall mall be one of Apprentices told me and assured me that his Master once left that Door of a Small Cellar open and that he saw the Engine upon a wooden Block and some Impression of some sort of money but of what money he does not remember

Hely the Forger of money had correspondence at the Hague with the English Embassadors Coach man a litle man called William and with another named ardsen alias adson an Englishman that deals in {Legnors}

Hely has told me that above 4 months since he had {illeg} at Rotterdam with one Named Calin an English Factor but I doe not know where he lives and with another named Stratman who lives at the sign of the Crown and two Scepters near the post there is still another person at the Hague that I will name but at the present I cannot remember it but I hope to do it to morrow and give you a Generall account

The litle English man that Hely furnished with false money has told me that he and Hely had correspondence with one named Estige at the Flying horse in the <29v> {Soutwark} And also with an upholsterer an Irish man who lives in a street between the Town house + Houstreat his Name is Mona or Montuat

he had likewise correspondence with a woman that lives in the Courdystreet at the sign of the White Lyon but I have forgot her Name he has told me that Hely had dealing about his false money with one Clifford an English who keeps at {Sasedolate} tho Hely did not mention in his Confession but hereas Sure of it I suspect no others at the Hague

In England

I suspect one named Bignet in Kingstreet at the sign of Henry the 8 a Tavern

one Rigby at the sign of the stagg in Suffolk street

Estige in Hartshorn Lane at Charing Cross a Wood monger

Further and {illeg} Examination of Maxmilian Laleu by Fabricius {Hoofaffi} in presence of all the {likepers} except Baker of the City of Harlem in the Prison there 8 January 1699

Maximilian Laleue acknowledges the false money found about him consisting in Sikellens and Gilders was made by him three or four dayes before he came hither from the Hague
