

MINT01597

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/436, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Middx Ss The Information of Unidentified Spinster taken this 15th day of Sept^r 1702

* Who saith that about Michaelmas last past she this Informant did assist Unidentified in the makeing and moulding the impressions of shillings and sixpences in spau with flasks, and melting block tin and Pewter together in an earthing pott, or crucible and pouring the same into the flasks so moulded as aforesaid and took therefrom Counterfeit Shillings and sixpence^s to the sum of about 8[£] or 9[£] in tale in the dwelling house of the Said Unidentified in the parish of St George,^s Southwark and some few days afterward the Said Unidentified did intice this informant to assist her in the said art of counterfeiting the currant coyn after the manner and in the place aforesaid to the sum of about four or five pound more And this Informant further saith that she hath been present with the Said Unidentified and her Nephew one Unidentified in the Lodging of the said Unidentified as well in Long Acre as also in Holbourn, file, edge, scower and Rubb the counterfeit money made as aforesaid and when it was finished the Said Unidentified and Unidentified did take the same in order to pass it away, and this informant farther saith that she has seen the Said Unidentified and their Aint Unidentified Severall times assist each other in the finishing & cleansing parcells of the counterfeit money cast as aforesaid by this Informant and the said Unidentified Unidentified capt juxrat an et die supdict: corā me J: Stanley
