

MINT01615

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/454, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Willts Ss The Information of Rob^t: Hort now a prisoner in the Goal at fisherton Anger in the Said county taken upon oath before me this 19th day of November 1703

This Inform^{tt} upon his oath saith, that on Whitmunday last past, he saw Unidentified of Christian Mallford in the country aforesaid Blacksmith coyn about 3 or 4 Shillings in imitation of the currant coyn of this realm, att this Inform^{tt}s house in Calne aforesaid in the Said county & this informant helped him the Said Unidentified to make the said counterfeit shillings and this informant further saith that one or about the month of August last past att this informants house in Calne aforesaid he saw Unidentified of Calne in the Said county Chandler make and coyn severall shillings of counterfeit mony in imitation of the currant coyn of this kingdome, and this Inform^{tt} assisted the Said Unidentified to make the Said counterfeit shillings and this Inform^{tt} saith that since the month of Aug: last past he saw Unidentified of Unidentified aforesaid Blacksmith make & coyn 2 shillings of counterfeit money in imitation of the currant coyn of this realme att the Said Unidentifieds house in Calne aforesaid And this informant further saith, that Unidentified of Cherhill in the county aforesaid Inholder had at two severall times two sur^{ms} of counterfeit money of this Inform^{tt} in order to dispose of the same for good money, the Said In^o: Fry knowing the same to be counterfeit money, and had the same att an under value, and this informant further sayth, that Rob^t: Emmett of Mannings hill in the county aforesaid husbandman had at severall times severall summs of money of this Inform^{tt} of counterfeit money, to putt it off the Said Rob^t: Emmett knowing the same to be counterfeit money & had the same att an under value Jurat die et anno prius infra script coram me Unidentified Rob^t: Hort
