

William Butler: The Examination of William Butler now Prisoner at Mr King's 1 January 1699

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/204, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<102r>

[1]

The Examination of William Butler now Prisoner at M^r Kings the Messenger taken this 1st day of 1699

Hee saith that about 5 or 6 weekes ago m^r Ruby a Chandler at the Corner of S^t. anns Court in Dean street Soho came to enquire for hte Examinant at the Fleet once or oftener as he was told by m^{rs} Lawrence who said she was to be heard of at the Crown in Dean street tho they there deny the knowledge of her And that since the Examinant was taken up by M^r. King the said M^{rs}. Lawrence came to the Examinant <102v> at the said M^r King's about 3 weeks ago and told the Examinant that if he had been in the way when M^r. Ruby came to him he this Examinant might have gone down with them to his advantage or words to that purpose and that they had some thousands of things and the Examinant asking what things She answered such as the Examinant had shewed her but better done

William Butler

[2]

[1] 204

[2] Cap^t. Iurat die et anno preedict
coram Isaac Newton
