

Temple Stanyon (for the Privy Council) to the Treasury, referring
MINT00878
(/catalogue/record/MINT00878)
(Mint 19/1/490) to their consideration.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/1/491, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<491>

At the Council-Chamber. White-hall the 15th: Day of Octob^r: 1724.
present

The Lords of His Majestys Most Honourable Privy-Council

Vpon Reading this Day of the {B}oard two Petitions of Iohn Rotherham of Barnett in Hertford-Shire Gentleman setting forth, his havign by his long Experience in Mettals Invented an effectuall Method to prevent the Counterfeiting the Current Coin of the Kingdom. And is ready to produce a Sufficient Fund to support the Charge thereof, without affecting either Land or Trade; And humbly Praying the same may be Examined into, and that he may have some Reard; On Condition he makes full proof thereof. — It is Ordered in Councill, that the said Two Petitions (Coppyes where of hereunto annexed) Be, and they are humbly Referr'd to the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury to Examin the same; and Report to his Majesty at this Board what they conceive fitt to be done therein

Temple Stanyan

This is a True Coppy of the Lords of his Majestys most Honourable privy Council, to the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majestys Treasury delivered to M^r. Iohn Rotherham the 17th. of Ian^ry: 1721 by M^r. Sharpe Clarke of the Council.
