

MINT01580

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/419, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

Ditto The Examination of Unidentified (now in Custory) taken this 14.th day of November
[\[Editorial Note 1\]](#) 1701.

Who saith that he this Examinant hath Lodged in the house of one Unidentified in Tyborn Road for about 5. or 6. weeks last past, but utterly denies that he ever counterfeited any Money and saith that the tooles for makeing the same which were found and Seiz'd in his Lodging, he does beleive them to have been left there by one Unidentified or his wife, And saith that he this Examinant hath seen and been privy to the Said Unidentified their counterfeiting the currant coyn of this Kingdom in this Examinants said Lodging room.

Unidentified Capt die et añ Supdict coram me Unidentified

[Editorial Note 1] The date recorded in the deposition is 14 May, but this is incorrect; see the related depositions Nos 415-419

---