

MINT01646

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/483, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

Lanc.<sup>r</sup> Ss. The Examination of Unidentified Spinster the daughter of Grace the wife of Jn.<sup>o</sup> Ryley by a former husband 18.th May 1704.

Who on Examination Saith that the first time she ever saw Unidentified was on Wednesday Evening the 3.<sup>d</sup> of this Instant may, he comeing thither with this Examinant<sup>s</sup> Father in Law Unidentified, and lay there that night and early in the morning went with this Examinant<sup>s</sup> father to his shop (which is halfe a mile from the house) and at night came back again to the house to lye, and continued so to doe untill thursday morning the 11.th instant, dureing which time, she this Examinant hath heard the Said father in law say that the Said Unidentified had promissed to make her Said father a clock for his meat and lodging whilst he should stay there. - But this Examinant denyeth that ever Unidentified, Unidentified Unidentified, Unidentified and Unidentified or any of them were ever at this Examinant<sup>s</sup> Fathers house, whilst the Said Unidentified was there, neither did she this Examinant ever see the Said Unidentified ever work or make anything in the fire, or do any other sort of work in her fathers house dureing the time of his stay there.

Judith her Q mark Blower

---