

Seven queries relating to the Edinburgh Mint's £1,200 annual allowance.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/3/109, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<109r>

Qu. 1. What Accounts have been made annually & what is due upon the foot of them?

Qu. 2. Have not all the 1200^{lbs} been imprest upon account, Or how have they been imprest.

Qu. 3 What inconvenience in paying the coynage Duty of Scotland into the Exchequer.

Qu. 4. In what Act are the salaries of the Barons of Exchequer appointed out of the customes, & how are they paid?

Qu. 5. Was not 50^{li} per annum added to the Wardens place just before the Vnion.

Qu. 6. Would not the General undertake the coinage & upon what conditions

Qu. 7 Ought not the General to give security.
