

Mary Hone: The Information of Mary Hone of the parish of St Andrew Holborn Spinster 10 January 1699

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/247, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<116v>

[1]

The Information of Mary Hone of the parish of S^t. Andrew Holborn in the City of London Spinster 10th.
Jan^y 1699

Who saith that she hath lodged about a month last past in the house of one M^r. Parker who lives in Plow yard in the said parrish whose wife is Nurse to one M^{rs} Labree who was lately delivered of a child and this Informant going this day to the Lodging of the said M^{rs}. Labree to see her Nurse the said Labree gave to her the 2^s which were taken upon her this day by Rob^t. Saker as she hath been and the said Labree desired this Informant to buy a Neck of Mutton for her and some Sugsar with the said shillings

the mark of Mary Hone

[2]

[1] 247

[2] Iurat et
Is Newton
