

Edward Ivy: The Deposition of Edward Ivy Prisoner in Newgate 22 August 1698

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/94, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

<41v>

[1]

The Deposition of Edward Ivy Prisoner in Newgate 22<sup>d</sup> aug<sup>t</sup>. 1698

He saith That Ino Iennings Gentleman late Footman to the Duke of Monmouth about 4 years ago in the Deponents Garden in Berry's Court in Lickabone street in London shewed the Deponent a handfull of Guineas being about 100 and told the Deponent that he and another person who lived near Hampton Court joyned stocks togeather + had a Convenient house for coyning + that he + the other person coyned those Guineas and they wanted a 3<sup>d</sup> person to assist them and desired the Deponent to put in a 110<sup>li</sup> + become sharer with them

Edward Ivye

[2]

[1] 94

[2] Iurat die et anno pedict
cor Is Newton

---