

Copy of note concerning Mrs Morris's bill for her husband's prosecution of coiners

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 1/7/42, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

<42>

To the Right Honourable Sidney Lord Godolphin Lord High Treasurer of England

May it please Your Lordship

In Obedience to Your Lordships Order of Reference Signified to us by M<sup>r</sup> Lowndes the 22<sup>d</sup> Iune last Wee have Examined M<sup>rs</sup>. Morris's Bill for service done by Her Husband in apprehending and prosecuting Coiners &c. and are humbly of opinion upon Examining Her vouchers that she may deserve the Sum of 40<sup>li</sup> in Consideration of Her Bill, Her Husband having been allways very Zealous in the prosecution of Coiners &c

All which is most humbly submitted to your Lordships great Wisdom

I: Stanley

Is: Newton

I Ellis

[1]

[1] Mint Office Ian: 20: 1702

---