

MINT01595

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/434, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<1r>

Middx Ss The Information of Unidentified of the parish of S^t Georges's Southwark in the county of Surrey taken this 7th day of Sept^r 1702

✱ Who upon her her oath that she this Informant being at one M^r's Unidentified's house in Thames Street London about three quarter^s of a year ago did then and there see Unidentified and Unidentified in a room one pair of stairs in the Said house and at the same did see Unidentified pour metall & into flasks in the presence <1v> of the Said Unidentified, did see the said Unidentified open the flasks and there appeared peices of counterfeit money like shillings resemebling the currant coyn of this kingdome and that she did hear the Said Unidentified say that they were cast fine, and would do, only they were a little too soft, and she this informant further saith that she did nurse a child for the said Unidentified about 4 years together, and that the said Unidentified did pay in part for the nursing of the Said child, to this informant about fifty shillings in counterfeit money about Christmas last, and she further saith that the Said Unidentified told this Informant, that she could make counterfeit money better then that of Unidentified, and shewed her how she might distinguish the one's makeing from the other.

Elizabeth ^{her} E _{mark} Bond Jurat capt: die

et ann: sup: dicta cor^{me}

J: Stanley
