

Fragmentary holograph notes on pistoles and moidores, on a cover addressed to Newton in another hand.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/73, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<73r>

In Spain the Pistole which before {illeg} wearing is here worth 17. {2. 8}{28} is recconed at 4 pieces of eight or 18^s & in Portugal the Moeda which is here worth 27. 6 is recconed at 10 Crusados or 28^s. 7^d.

In this Table standard Gold is valued at 4^{li} per {ounce} as Goldsmiths have of late valued it for the melting pot. The standard value is 3^{li}. 19^s. 8^d $\frac{3}{4}$ per ounce. The difference is inconsiderable.

[1]

<73v>

[2]

Sir

Be pleased to meet at a Vestry to be held on Tuesday in Eastor weeke at 9. in the morning precisely to Elect and confirme Officers for this present yeare.

John Batchelor Clr

[1]

For

Isaac Newton Esq^r.

[2] S^r. James Westminster

Aprill 4th. 1702
