

MINT01584

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/424, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

East Rid: Com Ebor } Ss The Information of Unidentified of Cottingham in the county aforesaid taken upon oath this 6.th day of Ap:^{rl}l anno domini 1702.

Who saith, that he this Informant being about to sell a parcell of corn to one Unidentified between Martinmas and Christmas last, he much suspected whether the said Unidentified was in a capacity to pay for it, when one Unidentified replied to this informant you not fear your money for that he the said Unidentified could coyn money and said that the said Unidentified had shewn to him the said Unidentified money of his own making, and further told this Informant, that the said Unidentified had not as yett gott the true way of Edging the money, but that in a little time he would be master of the art of words to that Effect and this Informant further saith not, Capt. Jurat dic et anno supra dict coram me } Edw:^d Barnard the mark of Unidentified

The Informant daith that the above named Unidentified did att the time aforesaid say that there was another Coyner within a stones throw of that place and that there was a gang or a pack of them Jurat corame me
The Mark of Unidentified Unidentified
