

MINT01555

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/306, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Middx Westm.^{er} } Ss The Examination of Philip Roza alias Maizey taken this 6th day of Feb.^r anno dom 1700

Who being duely Examined saith and confeseth that he has Lodged at one Monsieur Unidentified in Dukes place near Aldgait for the Space of three Months last past, and that he is by trade a Marchant, and that he lived at a Chandl{y} in Cañomile Street, near Bishopsgait for the Space of two months before he came to Dukes place, and that before he came to Lodge in Cañomile Street, he lodged at a Unidentified in S^t Katherines for the Space of 5. months. That he has been acquainted with M^r Unidentified (now in Newgait) ever Since he changed his Religion and turn'd Protestant, and wrote a book called the Protestant in Good humour that he never lived at the Coffee house in George Alley in the Stand nor does he know M^{rs} Unidentified who goes for his wife, And that he knows nothing at all concerning any of the Toolles Metall and other things fit for coyning, which were found in the Garret of the Coffee house aforesaid, And further saith, that he knows a Frenchman coñonly call'd Unidentified who Stutters a little, who has made Severall Counterfeit french Lowis d'ores and Spanish Pistoles, and Gilds the same, and has delivered them to him to Utter, which said Frenchman frequently useth Tom's Coffee-house in S.^t Martin's Layn, and resorts to a French Ministers in the Mews Cap.^t Coram me

Unidentified Unidentified
