

MINT01561

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/402, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Middx & Westm^r } Ss The Information of Unidentified of the parish of S^t Giles's Cripplegait Carver taken upon oath this 20.th day of Feb.^r 170⁰/₁.

Who saith that she did lodge in the House of Unidentified in Wine Office Court in Fleet Street, and that about 6. months agoe the Said Unidentified together with her brother Unidentified did frequently (but more particularly on a Sunday) lock up themselves in a Parlour for 2. or 3. houres together and that one Sunday she this Deponent bringing in Dinner into the Said parlour, did there see Scales weights & gold Coyns lye upon the Table, and that upon this Deponents coming in they put the Gold into one heap and lay'd it aside. And this Deponent further saith, that the Said Unidentified did send this Deponent to buy a neck of Mutton, and gave her a Pistole, but the Butcher careying the pistole to a Goldsmith the Said pistole wanted 9^d of weight and he the Said Goldsmith said that it had been newly filed. And this Deponent further saith, that one day coming into the parlour aforesaid she did see the aforesaid Unidentified take a Tobacco-pipe out of the fire and pour something out of it upon a sheet of paper, which did resemble (and look like) Gold. whereupon the Said M^rs Unidentified did call her bruit for coming so abruptly into the Room

And this Deponent further Saith that the Said M^rs Unidentified often sent this Deponent out to buy Severall things, and always have her Gold which was very often refused to be changed

And this Deponent further saith that she has severall times Seen Cooke plates in the Said Unidentified's Closet, with peices cut out of the Edges Larger than a Crown peice. And further saith that the said Unidentified did once send this Deponent to a Gold Wyre Driwer, to know if he had any broad pieces, or any other freind of hers had, and she would give them silver for them, for that she had particular occasion for them. Unidentified Jurat anno et die supradict. coram me J. Stanley
