

MINT01604

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/443, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

Middx Ss The Information of Unidentified of the parish of S<sup>t</sup>: Sepulcres in the county of Middx constable and of Rob:<sup>t</sup> Saker of S<sup>t</sup> And<sup>re</sup>s parish London gentleman taken upon oath this 24th day of December 1702

Who Joyntly and severally upon their respective oaths who sayth that having Information that one John Hews alias George and Susannah his wife were greatly suspected to counterfeit the currant coyn of this realm, thereupon they together with Unidentified went to their Lodging in Barwick street near old soho and coming up one pair of Stairs the Said Unidentified opened the chamber door and these deponents entring, found Unidentified his wife sett by the fire, with upward of 20<sup>s</sup> in counterfeit money in her lapp as well sixpences as shillings made of Pewter block tinn and such like metall, and a knife with a flote file Lying by her, and also counterfeit Shillings in her pockett and att the same time some metall melted in a fire shoule over the fire and near to the grate a pair of small iron flasks very hott, with the impressions of 2 shillings and one sixpence ready moulded thereon, resembling those of the currant coyn of this Kingdome and further saith that upon searching the said Unidentified found in 12 counterfeit shillings and one sixpence in his pockett and found in his hatt Lying in the window 24<sup>s</sup> & 11. sixpences counterfeit money resembling the currant coyn of this Kingdome,capt Jurat ann: et die supdict: coram                      me J Stanley                      Unidentified
Rob<sup>t</sup>Saker

---