

Copy of note suggesting the clerk of the Chester Mint deliver Mr Whitley's money

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 10/2/67r, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<67r>

London Decem^r 25th 1697

Sir

Since your Clerk has finished his Day Book, I believe he may best be spared to come with M^r Whitleys money unless you had rather come with it your selfe, Take your choise. The Master & Worker appointed one the last time & tis reasonable that I should appoin{t} one now I am &c^a.

yours Is Newton

[1]

[1] {The Master War}den of the {Mint} in Chester
