

Treasurer's authorisation for the payments described in MINT00565 (/catalogue/record/MINT00565) (Mint 19/2/518).

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/555, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<555r>

Whereas pursuant to a Warrant Signd by Her Ma{jesty} in that behalfe, the Officers of the Mint did receiv{e} from Sundry persons diverse Quantitys of Plate at certain Rates therein mentiond in Order to be Coyned and gave Receipts for the Value thereof at the Rates specyfied in the said Warrant And whereas the parliament have made no provision for satisfying the Difference between the produce of the said plate and the Rates it was taken in at, after the 14th day of May last. My Lord Treasurer doth Consent & agree on Her Majestys behalfe That if the said officers of the Mint or any of them shall for the accmmodation of the Imposters of the said plate advance to them respectively so much as the said Difference amounts to the same shall be repaid to him or them Out of Her Majestys Civil List money by Christmas next, if the Parliament shall not have provided for the same before that time.
