

MINT01659

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/498, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

The Information of Unidentified taken upon Oath this second day of August 1704.

This Informant upon his Oath deposeth and saith, that about a 12. months Since, he this Informant saw Unidentified Goldsmith melt down about 4. or 5. pounds of Silver money of the current Coyn of this Kingdom, with fine Silver and therewith made work. And this Informant further saith, that the latter end of March 1703. he saw the aforesaid Unidentified Soder the Goldsmiths-hall Marks for standard Silver into Course Silver, and at severall other times this Informant Saw the Said Unidentified cut out of old plate the said Hall Marks and Soder them into New plate, and this Informant further saith, that Unidentified lately a Goldsmith upon London Bridge, was privy to and did know that the Said Unidentified, did Soder the Hallmarks into Course plate

Unidentified Capt et jurat &c.^t coram

Unidentified Recorder
