

Sarah Timberlake: The Deposition of Sarah Timberlake of Gold Lane in the parish of St Gyles Crippe gate London widow 29 November 1698

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/70, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

<28r>

[1]

The Deposition of Sarah Timberlake of Golden Lane in the parish of S<sup>t</sup>. Gyles Crippe gate London widdow taken 29 day of Novemb<sup>r</sup>. anno D<sup>n</sup>i 1698

Who saith that on Saturday last one Elizabeth Bacon now in custody came to this Informant into Golden Lane and desired her to shew her an adjacent house in order to take it as she pretended and this Deponent did shew the said Eliz Bacon that said house and as they were in the back Garret of the said house that said Bacon took up some stuff like whiting and askt this Deponent if the Folks that lived in the said house last left it there but this Deponent replied that she could not tell whether they did or not the mark of

Sarah Timberlake

[2]

[1] 70

[2] Iurat die et anno preedict
coram Is Newton

---