

MINT01678

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/517, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Middx Ss. The Information of Amy the Wife of Richd Angell taken upon Oath this 20.th day of Nov.^{er} 1705.

Who saith that she knows S^r Unidentified and his Lady and that the said S^r Unidentified did invite her Said Husband and desired him to bring this Deponent and their Daughter Unidentified to his house in Kentish town about 2. months agoe, and accordingly they went thither, and saith that the Said S^r Richd did furnish her said husband with money, to buy and procure mettall and other materialls in Order to cast and counterfeit Dutch Skillings, which he her Said Husband did accordingly. & that She hath seen the Said S^r Richd Assist, by amending repaireing & blowing the fire whilst her said Husband Richd Angell was casting dutch Skillings as aforesaid, And that the Furnace in which the Mettall was melted, was of S^r Unidentifieds own procurement and likewise that the Flasks in which the same was moulded and cast, were provided by the same S^r Unidentified, And further saith, that she this Informant hath seen the lady Unidentified (wife to S^r Unidentified) assist about the fire as her husband S^r Unidentified had done as aforesaid & She hath seen the said Lady Unidentified rubb, dress and Whiten the Skillings so cast as aforesaid And that S^r Unidentified had the Skillings when finished as aforesaid Amy her W_{mark} Angell Capt et jurat anno et supdict coram me Unidentified
