

MINT01576

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/416, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Middx. Ss The Information of Unidentified taken upon oath this 14.th day of November 1701.

Who saith that he has been acquainted with one Margret the wife of Unidentified of the Parish of S.^t Giles's in the Feilds for about two years Last past, and further he saith that he hath seen the said Margret in Company with Unidentified and Unidentified in a Garrot of one Unidentified by Nibs's Pound in the parish of S.^t Martins in the feilds about a week ago and there he this Informant did see the said Unidentified Unidentified and Unidentified make and Mould the Impressions of a Shilling with a B upon it and likewsie the Impressions of Sixpences with Spand in Flasks, And saith further that he hath Seen the said Unidentified, Unidentified and Unidentified melt Pewther and Tyn Glass togeather in a firepan and to pour the same Mettle into the flasks Moulded as aforesaid. And he this Informant further saith that he hath heard the aforesaid Unidentified say that he had for a long time practised casting for at least 7. Years before he was Master enough to make a compleat Shilling; And also that he had heard the Said Unidentified Say that he had for a long time practised the Casting of Counterfeit Halpence, and colour them over with Vittriole, so that they lookt like Copper. / And further saith that Unidentified aforesaid knew that the said Unidentified did Counterfeit the Currant Coyn of this Kingdome as aforesaid and was privy thereto, and did assist in the putting off the Said Counterfeit Money by them so made.

Unidentified Capt Jurat

anno et die Spdict coram me Unidentified
