

MINT01560

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/401, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Middx Westm^r } Ss The Information of Unidentified Carver of the Parish of S^t Giles's Cripplegait taken this 19.th day of Feb.^r 170⁰/₁.

He saith he this Informant going to carry some money to Unidentified (which he owed unto her) upon Sunday the 12.th day of Jan^ry last he this Informant did se the Said Unidentified in a Parlour belong{ing} unto her dwelling house in Wine-office-Court in Fleet street, and did there and then see the Said Unidentified fileing or deminishing with a small file a peice of gold coyn, but whether it was a French Pistole or a Guinea this Informant is not very certain.

He further upon his Oath sayeth that there lay upon the table just beofre her a great Quantity of Guineas to the number (as this Informant verily beleiveth) of 50. or 60. and did likewise see some fileings of Gold dust in a paper upon the Said Unidentified's Lapp.

This Deponent further saith that he did then and there see one Unidentified brother to the aforesaid Unidentified weigh one Guinea in a pair of Small Scales, upon the Said table where the aforesaid Quantity of Guineas lay.

And this Deponent further saith, that he did then and there see Unidentified the daughter of the aforesaid Unidentified blowing the fire with a pair of Bellows, in which fire there were severall Tobacco-pipe-heads which (upon this deponents comeing in) were p^resently Snatcht away by the Said Unidentified the Daughter, who togeather with Unidentified the Mother, and the aforesaid Unidentified the Brother, were in a very great consternation & Surprise and were not able to Speak unto this Examinant for near halfe a Quarter of an houre.

And this Informant further saith upon his Oath, that the Said Unidentified the Mother did cause a certain Furnace to be made in her Garrott: but for what use he doth not know for that he this Informant has enquired of her, and her answer to this Informant has been, that what she did there was for her Fancy, and that she did what nobody else could do, And that he this Informant hath seen a Sack of charcole at a time in the aforesaid Garrott, and that he verily beleiveth She useth some illegall practices in relation to the Counterfeiting of the Currant Coyn of this Kingdome.

Unidentified Capt & jurat aid et die Supradict coram me Unidentified
