

Offers £4,000 security against renewal of his mastership: £2,000 himself and £1,000 each from Thomas Hall [master's assistant] and John Francis Fauquier
[deputy master].

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/1/65, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

<65r>

To the Right Honourable Sidney Lord Godolphin Lord High Treasurer of England.

May it please your Lordship

Vpon renewing the Indenture of the Mint I humbly propose to give the following security to her Majesty viz<sup>t</sup>

Isaac Newton Es<sup>r</sup>      2000

Tho. Hall Es<sup>r</sup>      1000

Iohn Fauquier Gent    1000

The acceptance of whist is most humbly desired & submitted to your Lordships great wisdom

Is. Newton

[1]

[1] Mint Office
20 Aug. 1702.

---