

MINT01594

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/433, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

Middx Ss The Information of Ceciliah Labree of the Parish of S<sup>t</sup> Ann Blackfryers taken this tenth day of August 1702. upon oath

* Who saith upon her oath that she hath bee acquainted Unidentified about six years, and that about three years since she saw a parcell of counterfeit mild money in the hands of the Said Unidentified which then confest to this deponent she had made her self by casting it in sand, and this deponent further saith that she had severall times since been in company with the said Unidentified and heard her confess that she sells her counterfeit mild money to Unidentified Unidentified Unidentified, Unidentified Unidentified M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified Unidentified and Unidentified, after the rate of forty counterfeit shillings for twenty good shillings and that Unidentified hath owned to this deponent that she hath lately had of Unidentified three pounds of counterfeit mild money, for twenty shillings good money, and this deponent farther saith that about one year since she saw in the hands of Unidentified two half Crowns which were counterfeit, one of them had a peice of the gall to it, and three counterfeit mild shillings not finished and a peice of Metall of about 6 ounces weight which money and metall the said Unidentified declared he found in a cellar in his then dwelling house in Earls court by Drury Lane, which said house was the late dwelling house of the aforesaid Unidentified, the said Unidentifieds goods being then in the aforesaid house and the aforesaid Unidentified did then declare to this deponent that he did beleive the said half Crowns and shillings with the metall to be Unidentifieds, because it was very like some counterfeit mild money which the said Unidentified had severall times before bought of the said Unidentified, after the rate of forty shillings bad money for twenty shillings good, And this Deponent further saith that about two months since she did meet one Unidentified who then shewed her three counterfeit mild Shillings and told her that his brother Unidentified and himself did work at a brasiers Shop, and did take opportunitys when their master was from them to make counterfeit money of white metall and silver it over, and this deponent further saith that she hath within this six months last past seen mild money in the custody of Unidentified, Unidentified Unidentified Unidentified M<sup>r</sup>s Unidentified Unidentified and Unidentified, which they all owned to this Deponent they bought of Unidentified aforesaid

Unidentified capt coram me die et anno præd: J: Stanley

---