

Orders for payment of the sums
mentioned in MINT00400
(/catalogue/record/MINT00400),
(Mint 19/3/161) and MINT00401
(/catalogue/record/MINT00401), (Mint 19/3/133-4) have been rendered void by Stewart's death:
requests a new order for payment
by his executors.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/3/131, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<131r>

To the Right Honourable the Earl of Godolphin Lord High Treasurer of great Britain.

May it please your Lordship

Your Lordships Warrant & the Precepts of the Lords Commissioners of her Majesties Treasury of Scotland thereupon for paying moneys due to D^r Gregory, m{e} & my Clerk, being (after an unnecessary delay of payment) become void by the death of M^r Stuart, I humbly pray that your Lordship will please to give such new order for the payment of the said moneys as your Lordship in your great wisdom shall think fit

{Is. Newton}

[1] Mint Office 14 Apr. 1708
