

Fragmentary holograph note on costs of coining copper.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/345, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<345r>

By the last contract

For making the blanks $2^{\text{d}} \frac{3}{4}$

To the moneyers for coining $1^{\text{d}} \frac{3}{4}$ whereof $\frac{1}{4}$ for Graver & Smith. The moneyers were the Smith & gave the Graver 40^s per Tunn.

Master & Worker $\frac{1}{2}^{\text{d}}$

Total 5^d.

Milling & cutting 1^d.
