

'A Proposal for regulating the Gravers Office'.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/1/147, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<147r>

A Proposal for regulating the Gravers Office.

That the Gravers do work from time to time in such tasks as the Master & Worker for the time being shall appoint for making dispatch in the coynage of money & Medalls according to her Majesties Orders. That without her Majestys Orders or your Lordships they shall dispose of no medals with her Majestys Effigies nor convey out of the Mint any Dyes or Puncheons for making such Medals, nor sell such Medals at a higher rate then shall be allowed by the Warden Master & Comptroller of her Majestys Mint.

[1]

Is. {Newton}

[1] Sept. 8. 1704
