

'Mony<sup>rs</sup> Proposall Humbly Offered to the Officers of Her Maj<sup>ts</sup> Mint for Coyning Copper'.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/396, 398, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

<396r>

Monyers Proposall Humbly Offered to the
Officers of Her Majestys Mint for Coyning Copper

To Receive the Copper Malleable and Hammered and Drawne into smooth Filletts or Barrs of a Propper
breadth and Thickness

And to Draw the same att the Horse Mills cutt into Blanks Neal Blanck and scower to Edge the Blanks, and Coyne them, And allso Fix the said Mills, Cutters Flatters Edgers Presses &c<sup>a</sup>. } 4<sup>d</sup>. $\frac{1}{2}$
Which by a bill given in will Cost 700<sup>li</sup>. And be Obliged to Deliver to a proper Officer  $\frac{7}{12}$  parts of what Copper Wee Receive, And bear all manner of Waste and Losses at per pound weight

Memerandum

If the Queen will be Graciously Pleased to allow £100. Towards the Tools abovesaid

<398r>

Monyers Proposall Humbly Offered to the
Officers of Her Majestys Mint, For Coyning Copper.

(Viz)

To Receive the Copper, Malleable, being Hammered & Drawn into Smooth Fillets or Barrs, Of a Propper
breadth and Thickness

And to Draw the same, at the Horse Mills cutt the Blanks, Neal, Blanck, & Scower them, To } 4<sup>d</sup>. $\frac{1}{2}$
Flatt & Edg{e} the same With Graining, And Coyn them, And Also To Fix the said Mills Cutters Flatters Presses Presses &c Which by a bill given in will Cost £700.– And Likewise be Obliged to  $\overline{D}^d$  back to a proper Officer  $\frac{7}{12}$  parts of What Copper they shall Receive, And bear all manner of Waste and Losses in the said undertaking at per pound weight.

Memorandum

On Condition the Queen will be Graciously pleased to Allow £100. Towards fitting up the Tooles abovesaid

<398v>

{2.} Proposall

To the Officers of the Mint for Coyning Copper

Iune 6. 1713.

---