

John Haynes: Untitled, 1 August 1698

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/92, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<41r>

[1]

Iohn Haynes of Whitecross street in the parrish of Criplegate Tobacconist maketh oath that Edward Bird of Durham yard Lace buyer about Christmas last brought to the Deponent a Great Iron skrew to be turned less and true and cut shorter by any Workman which the Deponent should recommend to him and said that it was made in the Countrey and sent up to him to get it turned less and true and cut shorter

Iohn Haynes

[2]

[1] 92

[2] Iurat Aug^t 1 1698
Coram Is Newton
